Directions to Camp Ta-Wa-Si

Coming from the Moncton Area: (DO NOT USE GPS DIRECTORS AS IT WILL TAKE YOU VIA AN UNUSABLE ROAD)

Travel along the Shediac Road, Highway #15, until passing through the community of Shemogue. Then look for the left-hand turn-off to Murray Corner, Highway #955. After taking the turn-off and traveling 3 kms there is an intersection. Turn left onto the Johnston Point Road. Travel along this road until you come to a stop sign, turn right and continue into the camp.

Coming from the Sackville/Nova Scotia Area:

Take the PE exit at Aulac and travel along Highway #16 until you reach the rotary outside Port Elgin. On the rotary take the exit to Shediac, Highway #15. You now have a choice of two routes: 1) travel along until you reach the Murray Corner turn-off and turn right onto Highway #955 and proceed following the same directions as above; or 2) look for the Davis Road (a side road about 5 kms from the rotary) and turn left onto it. This will take you to the same intersection that is mentioned in the first paragraph, but you will drive straight, unto Johnston Point Road, crossing over Highway #955.
